You can barely move for masterpieces in the Tuscan capital: Michelangelo's David, centerpiece of the Galleria dell'Accademia; the Uffizi; the romantic Ponte Vecchio; and the Duomo, a holy canopy of terracotta high above the rooftops. Even the streets are an elegant, edifying showcase of Italian culture.

Day 3 | Tuscany – Choose Your Own Adventure in Florence, Pisa or Lucca

A cypress-dotted vision of Italian beauty, Tuscany charms like a Medici prince, capturing the very essence of the nation's heartland. Set out into this timeless realm of storybook hilltop towns and undulating green landscapes as you choose your own Tuscan adventure. Head to Lucca to stroll its picturesque town center, Piazza dell'Anfi teatro, and its impressive 16th century ramparts. Pisa's iconic Leaning Tower is also on the menu, along with the city's historic Baptistery, Campo Santo and Duomo. Or, linger in Florence to take in the timeless Palazzo Vecchio, the former residence of the powerful Medici clan. Alternatively, set out for a truffle hunt in the rolling hills of Tuscany. Later, head to the port of Livorno, where your expedition vessel awaits.

Day 4 | Bonifacio, Corsica; France – Walking in Napoleon's Footsteps

The birthplace of Napoleon Bonaparte, the mountainous island of Corsica juts imposingly from the Mediterranean, as bold and proud as the French emperor himself. Here, explore the fortress town of Bonifacio's medieval houses, chapels and web of alleyways. Afterward, stroll the cobble streets, historic buildings and quayside of Porto Vecchio's Old Town. Or, hike to Castellu d'Araghju for stunning views of the coast.

Day 5 | Cagliari, Sardinia; Italy – Bronze Age Mysteries Wrapped in Coastal Beauty

Though Sardinia glints with some of the most breathtaking shores in the Mediterranean, its culture has been defined by its rustic interior more than its coast: a landscape of mysterious Bronze Age monuments and ancient shepherd tracks that wind through forests of oak and myrtle. Come ashore in Sardinia's historic port city and capital, Cagliari, where you stroll the Old Town and visit Saint Mary and Saint Cecilia Cathedrals. Alternatively, hike Sardinia's gentle hills to uncover timeworn ruins or sample the varieties of a local winery.

Presided over by fiery Mount Etna, Sicily is a red-hot mix of sunbaked temples, sizzling sea views and sensational produce grown on its fertile volcanic slopes. Come ashore in the iconic port of Syracuse, a place Cicero described as "the greatest Greek city and most beautiful of them all." Explore Syracuse's Old Town of Ortigia, a tangle of cobbled streets wending this way and that, lined with fabulous boutiques, restaurants, and ancient buildings such as the Temple of Apollo. After a tasting of the distinctive local Moscato, Nero d'Avola and Syrah, hit the market to sample the region's freshest picks. Alternatively, head further inland for a truffle hunt at a local farm.
